- 1.4 Participants should be present at the designated venue by the scheduled commencement time.

- 3.4 The use of any reference material, electronic storage or communication devices is strictly prohibited. Mobile phones and other electronic devices must be turned off during competition. Their use during play will result in a five-point penalty in the first instance and a score of zero for that round for subsequent offences.

4. Answers

- 4.1 Answers must be written in permanent ink. They must be legible, accurate and specific to be considered correct.
- 4.2 Unless otherwise specified in the question, the surname alone is sufficient where the answer concerns the name of a real person. Note that an incorrect forename with a correct surname would not be considered correct.
- 4.3 Forenames or abbreviations alone are acceptable where a person is universally recognised by that name (e.g. Napoleon, JFK).
- 4.4 Unless otherwise specified in the question, an answer concerning a king, queen or pope requires both regnal name and regnal number (e.g. John Paul II). However, the regnal number is not required if there was only one king/queen/pope of that name (e.g. Queen Victoria).

- 4.5 Unless otherwise specified in the question, either forename or surname will be accepted if the question concerns a fictional character (e.g. Sherlock or Holmes).
- 4.6 Spelling errors will not be penalised provided answers satisfy 4.1.
- 4.7 Unless otherwise specified in the question, phonetic spelling of answers will be accepted.

5. Participant Duties

6. Appeals

- 6.1 Participants have 10 minutes from the release of each round's answers to lodge an appeal against any question / answer.
- 6.2 The event manager's decision will be final and no further appeals may be lodged.
