

#	Question
1	Whilst Alan Shepard famously hit a golf ball on the Moon in 1971 using his own collapsible club, his fellow astronaut Edgar Mitchell used a lunar scoop handle as what type of sporting object?
2	The Onyx river is both the largest and longest on which continent?
3	Which American-born golfer - born in 1939 and known for his sense of humour, once threw a rubber snake at Jack Nicklaus at the beginning of their 1971 play-off for the US Open?
4	Which famous film director walked up to the podium in 1934 thinking he had won the Best Director Oscar after Will Rogers announced "Come and get it Frank!", only to find that the winner was actually lesser-known director Frank Lloyd?
5	Situated adjacent to Kirribilli House, which large sandstone mansion is the official Sydney residence of the Governor-General of Australia?
6	Canopic jars were funerary vases used to keep the internal organs of corpses in which ancient civilisation?
7	What brass instrument takes its name from the French for "paperclip", and was played professionally by Gustav Holst in orchestras?
8	In which activity might a player use a special marker called a "dauber" or a "dabber"?
9	How do we better know the marsupial Setonix brachyurus, particularly associated with Rottneest Island?
10	Which 1966 novel by Jean Rhys acts as a prequel to Charlotte Bronte's 1847 novel Jane Eyre?
11	Shere Khan is the name of a tiger in which work by Rudyard Kipling, later a Disney animated film?
12	Which best-selling author of the last decade claims to get "inspiration" from hanging upside down in gravity boots?
13	Which Caribbean island nation was named by Columbus after the day of the week on which he spotted it?
14	Which future US President was involved in the rescue of Modesto Varischetti - who was trapped in a gold mine for nine days in Western Australia in 1907?
15	What word for a state of disorder caused by an absence of authority comes from the Greek for "without a ruler"?
16	Three Australians have won the 24 Hour Race at Le Mans. Geoff and David Brabham won it in 1993 and 2009 respectively, but which Aussie won it in 1983?
17	Also known as the adult stage, what name is given to the final stage of development of an insect?
18	The name of which desert is derived from the Tswana word for "the great thirst"?
19	What official pseudonym was used by film directors who did not want their own name associated with a project - usually because they were unhappy with the final product? Its use was discontinued in 2000
20	The name of which seed is said to have originated from a popular phrase in "The Thousand and One Nights" - it refers to its ability to pop at the slightest touch when ripe?
21	The largest artery in the human body is the aorta. What is the largest vein?
22	Which famous duo ended their collaboration in 1890 over a disagreement as to who would pay for a new carpet to be installed in the lobby of the Savoy Theatre in London? They would reconcile the following year.
23	What is both the name of a city in Western Australia, and the name that was almost given to the Epsom Derby horse race - as it was decided by the toss of a coin?
24	The Jabberwock, Tweedledum and Tweedledee are characters that only appear in which 1871 work by Lewis Carroll - a sequel to Alice's Adventures In Wonderland?

25	Which Scottish pop rock band - that had a worldwide Number 1 hit in 1994 - formed in 1982 under the name Vortex Motion ? Drummer Tommy Cunningham said of their formation "It was either crime, the dole, football, or music - and we chose music"?
26	Which Australian sports broadcaster is nicknamed "Mr Olympics", as he has covered every Summer Olympic Games from 1980 up to 2008? Five-time gold medallist Michael Johnson gave him his shoe after winning the 400m in Atlanta as a sign of respect
27	What is the most recent competitive category to have been introduced to the Academy Awards - it was first awarded for films released in 2001?
28	Which famous Australian co-wrote the 2010 book Jasper and Abby and the Great Australia Day Kerfuffle with Rhys Muldoon?
29	In what year was the number of points awarded for a try in rugby league increased from three to four in Australia?
30	Which 1970 musical by Stephen Schwartz consists of a series of parables from the Gospels of St Matthew and St Luke set to modern music?