

Quizzing Australia Privacy Policy

Version 1, May 2016

1.0 Introduction

Quizzing Australia Inc. (QA) has developed this policy to ensure compliance with the Privacy Act 1988 and with the Australian Privacy Principles. It applies to all personal information collected by QA, whether in electronic or hard-copy format.

2.0 What is Personal Information?

Personal information is information that identifies, or could identify, a person. It includes name, birthdate, address, email, bank account details, photographs, etc.

3.0 Who Does This Policy Apply To?

By registering for QA events, participants consent to our Privacy Policy. All Committee Members are also required to abide by this Policy.

4.0 Why We Collect Information

QA collects personal information for the purposes of, inter alia, registering and insuring participants, managing competitions, undertaking business transactions, improving the services offered to its members and to facilitate communication with its members.

5.0 How We Protect Your Information

Any private information is stored electronically, password protected, and only available to QA committee members.

6.0 How Will My Information Be Used?

From time-to-time QA may make publicly available the results of its events, or be required to distribute personal information to other organisations (e.g. insurance companies). QA will only distribute the minimum information required, only for the designated purpose, and only to organisations with equivalent privacy policies in place.

7.0 Accuracy and Breaches

QA will make every effort to ensure the accuracy of its information. Members may verify any information held about them at any time.

Should any member believe that a breach of this policy has occurred they should contact QA who will investigate the claim and apply the appropriate remedy.

8.0 Updates

Any changes to this policy will be updated on the QA website in a timely manner.
